

Aladia Airlines and Systema Corporation Litigation

January 05, 2021

Representation of a Mexican corporation (travel and airline) in connection with multi-million dollar cross-border litigation proceedings involving the U.S., Mexico and Canada. We served as lead trial counsel for Aladia against Transat Airlines and Travel (now a part of Air Canada following a 2019 merger/acquisition). The case went to jury trial in NYC involving cross-border litigation claims for breach of contract, unfair competition and other claims under NY and Mexican law.

Client: Aladia and Systema Corporation
