

COMPLEX & HIGH-STAKES LITIGATION

Diamond McCarthy is a national litigation boutique practicing in complex and high-stakes business cases. From “bet your company” commercial disputes to business dissolutions, qui tam “whistleblower” lawsuits to class actions, we are known as creative, sophisticated, thorough and tenacious litigators on both sides of the docket. We frequently are asked to tackle issues of first impression in the courts and regularly argue such issues in the trial and appellate courts. Across the country and around the world, in courts, arbitration forums, and in alternative dispute resolutions, we provide premier representation for our clients. In international litigation, Diamond McCarthy partners with outstanding lawyers in foreign forums to provide the best possible counsel to meet each client’s particular needs.

When major law firms must refer clients and cases due to conflicts, Diamond McCarthy is often on their short list. This is because Diamond McCarthy has garnered a reputation for excellence in the legal community by working with – and often opposing – many of the most formidable large firms in the country with much success. While we are best known for our representation of corporate and high-net-worth individual plaintiffs, Diamond McCarthy attorneys also defend these same clients with equal vigor and tenacity. We are also noted for our superior forensic work in the discovery phase and our ability to augment the value of various economic and financial experts with our lawyers’ strong business, finance and accounting acumen.
