Kathy Bazoian Phelps has 25 years of experience as a lawyer in bankruptcy law and fraud litigation. Kathy's practice includes representing trustees and receivers, debtors, and secured and unsecured creditors in bankruptcy cases and other insolvency proceedings. She has served as Chapter 11 trustee and frequently represents operating and liquidating trustees and receivers in the United States District Court, the United States Bankruptcy Court, and the Superior Court of the State of California. She also represents defendants in bankruptcy litigation, including fraudulent transfer defendants in Ponzi scheme cases, and has extensive litigation experience in a variety of bankruptcy litigation matters.

Kathy has lectured widely and written on bankruptcy and receivership matters, with a focus on Ponzi schemes. Her new book entitled The Ponzi Book: A Legal Resource for Unraveling Ponzi Schemes, co-authored with Hon. Steven Rhodes, has garnered national and international attention as the authoritative work on Ponzi scheme law.

In addition to her roles as lawyer, speaker and author, Kathy also serves as a mediator and is currently on the Bankruptcy Mediation Panel for the Central District of California.

Representative Cases

- Local litigation counsel for federal equity receiver requested by Commodities Futures Trading Commission in Hunter Wise Commodities LLC.
- Local litigation counsel for Canadian company seeking return of fraudulently transferred assets.
- Counsel for federal equity receiver in First Time Credit Solutions, Inc. requested by the Federal Trade Commission, in a credit repair business engaged in allegedly fraudulent activity.
- Counsel for group of defrauded investors in alleged Ponzi scheme bankruptcy case of Vincent Singh and Perfect Financial Corp., defending them against the chapter 7 trustee's fraudulent transfer, preference and usury claims.
- Counsel for federal equity receiver requested by the Securities and Exchange Commission in Capital Cove Bancorp, LLC, in which Kathy is lead counsel in unraveling the fraudulent scheme and liquidating the assets of the company and its affiliates.

- Counsel for federal equity receiver requested by the Securities and Exchange Commission in Secured Capital Investments, in which Kathy is lead counsel in advising the receiver on operational issues and assisting with the administration of assets, the sale of properties nationwide, and the claims process for the defrauded victims.
- Chapter 11 Trustee of Sonya D. International, Inc., Hazlaha LLC and Sonya Dakar, where Kathy ran the operations of a skin care clinic, investigated the business operations and inter-company transfers, and facilitated a complex settlement which will result in payment in full to creditors.
- Counsel for federal equity receiver in Diversified Lending Group, Inc. an SEC action in a $250 million Ponzi scheme case, where Kathy supervised the winding down of the business, the reconstruction of missing and incomplete records, the analysis and tracing of investor funds, the liquidation and recovery on various investments made by the debtor, and the prosecution of litigation to recovery funds for the benefit of the investors and creditors.
- Counsel for group of defrauded investors in bankruptcy case of Vincent Singh and Perfect Financial Corp, defending them against the chapter 7 trustee's fraudulent transfer, preference and usury claims.
- Counsel for state court appointed receiver in Unicorp, Inc., a fraud litigation matter, reconstructing missing records and tracing over $9 million of funds removed by the defendant prior to the receiver's appointment.
- Counsel for chapter 11 trustee, and thereafter successor chapter 7 trustee, in the bankruptcy case of Persistence Capital, LLC, involving the unwinding of a Ponzi scheme, where the debtor sold a fictitious investment product related to pools of life insurance policies. Kathy assisted the trustee in establishing the nature of fraud, unwinding a series of complex financial transactions, tracing the funds, and pursuing litigation to recover funds in the case. The principals of this debtor were both ultimately convicted and sentenced.
- Counsel for Chapter 11 trustee and thereafter the successor chapter 7 trustee, in the bankruptcy case of Eonxchange, LLC, where she investigated the fraudulent Ponzi-like activity of the debtor related to an emission credit trading program through the SCAQMD where over $90 million was misappropriated from customers and investors. Substantial funds were recovered for the benefit of the creditors and the principal of the debtor was ultimately convicted.
- Counsel for chapter 11 and chapter 7 trustees in a multitude of bankruptcy cases, handling:
 - operating going concern businesses
 - winding down various types of businesses
 - tracing funds
 - selling real estate
 - prosecuting fraudulent conveyance and preference litigation
 - address countless administrative issues arising in those cases
- Counsel for various insolvent corporate and high net worth debtors, assisting them in out-of-court workouts, preparing for an assignment for benefit of creditors, and guiding them into a chapter 11 reorganization bankruptcy.
