Global Reach and Capabilities

Diamond McCarthy's international lawyers have on-the-ground experience representing clients in commercial litigation and arbitration matters in jurisdictions around the world. Backed by our large global network of foreign counsel developed over decades of international practice, we have the resources and firepower to handle disputes arising in a number of key jurisdictions, including Europe, the Middle East, Africa, Asia, the CIS and Latin America.

Experience in Alternative Dispute Resolution

Our lawyers recognize that a long and expensive courtroom battle isn't always the most effective option for our clients. Whenever possible, we utilize mediation, arbitration, informal negotiations and other creative alternatives to streamline the dispute resolution process, maximize value and achieve the best possible outcome.

We also ensure that clients are well-informed about the risks and costs of entering litigation. Many clients hire our team to prepare a comprehensive pre-suit evaluation with a realistic assessment of the strengths and weaknesses of the case, the likelihood of success at trial and the projected costs to go the distance.
