

Sofia Adrogué Receives “Top 50 Women Lawyers” Recognition from National Diversity Council (November 2019)

November 11, 2019

Diamond McCarthy is proud to announce Partner Sofia Adrogué has been recently honored with the “Top 50 Women Lawyers” award by the National Diversity Council.

Chosen for her legal experience, leadership skills and commitment to diversity as well as the success and advancement of women, Sofia was presented with the recognition, alongside others, on October 29, 2019 during the organization’s third annual Houston Legal Diversity Week.

The National Diversity Council’s “Top 50 Women Lawyers” accolade recognizes women who work towards obtaining equity for women and mold and impact the legal industry with their insight and leadership. Those recognized received a high degree of peer recognition regarding leadership excellence and professional knowledge; exemplified a notable commitment to fairness, equity and justice in client representations and professional collaborations; maintained an outstanding level of integrity and dignity across legal dealings and responsibilities; as well as demonstrated their commitment to helping women succeed.

About the National Diversity Council
