

Sofia Adrogué Recognized as a 2019 Texas “Super Lawyer,” Along with Six Additional Diamond McCarthy Attorneys (September 2019)

September 20, 2019

Diamond McCarthy is proud to announce seven attorneys have been selected for inclusion in Thomson Reuters’ 2019 Texas “Super Lawyers” list, with one attorney additionally being included in two “Top 100” lists.

In the Dallas office, the publication recognized Partner James D. McCarthy in the practice area of Business Litigation; Partner Christie Newkirk in Employment & Labor; Partner Mark K. Sales in Estate & Trust Litigation; and Partner J. Gregory Taylor in Professional Liability. The publication also recognized Senior Counsel Mark A. Shank in the area of Employment & Labor, in addition to recognizing him in the “Top 100: 2019 Texas Super Lawyers” and “Top 100: 2019 Dallas/Fort Worth Super Lawyers” lists.

In the Firm’s Houston office, Partners Allan B. Diamond and Sofia Adrogué were recognized as a “Super Lawyer” in the area of Business Litigation.

Each year attorneys are nominated by peers and undergo a twelve-step evaluation by a select expert research panel. Of those nominated, the research panel selects less than five percent of attorneys within the region whom have been evaluated on his or her professional accomplishments, peer recognition and community involvement. The comprehensive and diverse listing serves as a valuable resource for attorneys and consumers searching for the best of legal counsel within the relative region and practice area.

Related People

Sofia Adrogué