

Diamond McCarthy Partner Sofia Adrogué Envisioned & Chaired Driven Inc. eDiscovery Speaker Series National CLE

August 7, 2020

Diamond McCarthy Partner Sofia Adrogué, Editor of ALM's TEXAS BUSINESS LITIGATION, recently envisioned and chaired Navigating, Innovating & Litigating Through the COVID-19 Global Pandemic on Thursday, July 30, 2020.

Part of the eDiscovery Speaker Series by Driven Inc., the 1.0 hour CLE, was produced in cooperation with Diamond McCarthy LLP and Driven Inc. A record number of attorneys from across the country registered for this nationwide CLE. Participating with Sofia, was Co-Editor Hon. Caroline Baker, Senior Retired District Judge, as well as Hon. Mark Drummond, Retired Judge & Judicial Director, Civil Jury Project, NYU School of Law, Richard T. Garcia, Former FBI Agent & Houston & LA Chief & Prof. Nancy B. Rapoport, Former Dean, UHLC & William S. Boyd School of Law of University of Nevada.

About the CLE & TEXAS BUSINESS LITIGATION (ALM 4TH EDITION)

These are uncharted, unprecedented times where COVID-19 remains a national public health and an economic crisis. This CLE explored and analyzed the benefits, risks, and concomitant opportunities of virtual litigation (court and ADR) and addressed the complex questions with resolve and resilience in the "new normal."

Litigation in the 21st century remains the subject of vigorous substantive debate and commensurate study. It is undisputed that the jury trial faces extinction, with numbers in a precipitous decline across state and federal courts nationwide. With the decline of jury trials, excellence in litigating matters is paramount. To assist in navigating the litigation process, ALM's TEXAS BUSINESS LITIGATION brings together the inputs and experience of legendary trial lawyers and specialists as they analyze a range of issues encountered in the litigation process.

Now in its 4th Edition, with a 5th Edition forthcoming in 2021, the publication is a comprehensive handbook ideal for litigators and transactional attorneys written by a stellar panel of veteran Texas litigators, judges and arbitrators.
